

CAMDEN VALLEY CHURCH INC.

CHURCH COUNCIL NOMINATION FORM

The Church Council is the governance body for Camden Valley Church. It functions in the role of the Management Committee as outlined in our constitution as an Incorporated Association.

Role and function of the Church Council

Some of the key aspects of the Church Council's role are:

- It is the custodian of the vision and values of CV Church. Its role is to ensure that the church fulfils its mission, maintains its core values and pursues its vision as agreed to by its leaders and members.
- It is to engage in and encourage prayerful discernment in conjunction with key leaders and congregation regarding our vision and strategic directions.
- It is to oversight the resourcing of the mission of the church, specifically finances, staffing and any capital assets. This includes preparation and oversight of annual budget, employment of staff, support and review of staff performance.
- It takes responsibility for governance to allow separation and delegation of church management to staff and key leaders, so as to avoid conflict of interest and confusion of roles between day to day operation and overall direction.
- The Senior Pastor is the staff appointment to Council and liaison person between staff and Council.
- Staff and Council will meet at regular intervals for prayer, strategic planning and relational connection.

Church Council Member Nomination requirements

- Nominations require the names and signatures of a mover, seconder and the person nominated.
- Persons nominated must be members, and living in alignment with the church's values and Volunteer Code of Conduct.

- Persons nominating must be members.
- Persons voted into Church Council cannot be related to other members of existing or incoming Church Council members or CV Church staff.
- Nominees will have an informal interview with the Senior pastor and one (1) representative of the Church Council prior to voting.
